There is a very interesting group of items marked Theodore B. Starr, silver maker of Black, Starr & Frost. He was an active jeweler and silversmith from 1865 to 1924 when his shop closed in New York City. The silver by Theodore B. Starr descended in his family and is being sold by his granddaughter who is moving into smaller quarters. Another collection being sold is from a Scranton Pennsylvania Estate which contained a number of Russian silver enamel items.

450 Lots of Sterling including American .900, European .800 Silver and Mexican Sterling; 50 Pieces of Unusual Silver Plate; Sets of Sterling Flatware including Poppy, King Albert, Madam Jumel, etc. plus Trays, Bowls, Chocolate Set, Creamers and Sugars, Salt and Peppers, Salvers, Compotes, Vases, Nut Dishes, Baskets, Candlesticks and Wax Seals. 100 Souvenir Spoons, most are Native American Indians, plus two Salem Witch Spoons by Low; Unusual Serving pieces including Boxes and Cigarette Cases; Mirrors, Dresser Items and English Pieces from 1751. Makers include Tiffany, Cartier, Towle, Whiting, Asa Munger, Dominick & Haff, S. Kirk and Shiebler. Russian Items include 3 Kovshs, 2 Boxes, 4 Eggs, 2 Napkin Rings, 2 Perfumes, Cup & Saucer and Pitcher; 4 Russian Icons with Silver Covers, 3 with Enamel, plus a Brass Icon with 16 Panels and 4 Wooden Icons.
