

MUSCLE CAR AUCTION – PART II

THIS IS A SALVAGE AUCTION

Saturday, December 11, 2010 – 11 AM, Preview 9

The auction will be held on-site at 1298 Hawleyton Road, Binghamton, NY 13903

HISTORY: We had a large on-site auction scheduled for November 20th. On November 12th the garage where a lot of the tools, parts and 3 cars were stored burned to the ground. The cars that were inside the garage were a 1969 Chevelle SS 396 w 454, 4-speed, restored; 1969 Chevelle SS 396 w 396, 4-speed, restored and a 1957 Oldsmobile convertible with a new top, rebuilt engine and a 'frame-off' restoration, ready to paint. A 1981 Kawasaki LTD 100 motorcycle was totally destroyed. Parked just outside the garage was a 1976 Triumph TR-6, the paint was blistered and the top was lost.

AUCTION: We are selling the 4 cars listed above in their 'as is post-fire' condition. We are also selling a number of other vehicles that were parked away from the garage and were not affected by the fire. They include a 1984 Camaro, 1989 Audi 90, 1984 V W, Boat, trailer & outboard motor (all selling as one lot), snowmobile trailer - maximum weight 2090 pounds and an Oliver tractor. We will also be selling any of the car parts and tools that are salvageable.

SALVAGE - We are not making any guarantee about the condition of any of the items that were in the fire. The buyers will have to determine the condition for themselves. There are 5 Big Blocks including 3904351-Hi Performance 1967, 425/430/435 HP, plus the engines in the Olds and 2 Chevelles – each car will be sold as one unit to be removed. There is one 4-speed transmission that is possibly salvageable.

Selling at 11:30 AM: 1971 Monte Carlo, 396/402, running, VIN #138571B122148, odometer reads 64,975, was licensed through April 2007. This car had been stored in a storage mall. We attempted to sell this on November 20th but due to a dead battery the engine would not start.
