

Schedule of Events

Saturday, May 26, 2007

10am - 4pm (and beyond)

Vendors and Exhibits

Handcrafted items, live performances, food & drinks, vintage vehicles, and more surprises throughout the day at the Library Lawn in Hancock Village.

Featuring live demonstrations of exquisitely-detailed wood carving and exhibits of artwork and photography by Family School students. Come be amazed at the extraordinary work these young people produce!

For kids and teens: Double Gyro Ride, Bounce House, mini animals, firetruck tours, arts & crafts, face painting, games, puppet show, and more!

10am - 1pm

Historical Tour of Hancock

There's more to Hancock than you think!

11am - 2pm

Antique Road Show with Bob Connelly

Get a professional opinion of value on your antique treasures from this internationally renowned appraiser

3 - 6pm

The Atkinson Family Bluegrass Band

Award-winning recording artists!

Silent Auction

From the practical to the unusual

7 - 9pm

Live Theatrical Production

Presented by The Little Victory Players

9-11pm

Teen Dance Party at the Big Tent

DJ, dance contests, food and drinks!

Hancock is a hidden gem resting in the foothills of the Catskill Mountain region. Idyllically located at the confluence of the East and West Branch of the grand Delaware River, it is easily accessed off exit 87 of Route 17, or from Routes 370 and 191 at the border of Northeastern Pennsylvania and New York.

For More Info, Call 607-637-2870